Democratic National Committee Minister Calls Christ of Rus-Figures Out How It Was All Done.

No one has ever found the exact relation between campaign buttons and votes, but it is known now that it takes 6.376.930 buttons to elect a President. It required that many to elect Governor Wilson, or at least the Demonstrate of which Governor Wilson, or at least the Dem-ocratic National Committee, of which Lieutenant-Governor J. Taylor Ellyson Lieutenant-Governor J. Taylor Eliyson is a member, bought that many. Now, he received about the same number of votes—the official figures have not yet been compiled—so a deducing statistician could figure that each button was orth a vote. But those who know worth a vote. But campaign buttons are the coin of the realm during the lat-ter part of September and October and have very little to do with votes. After expressing his appreciation of the kindness of the members of Calvary kindness of the members of Calvary Church, Dr. Knight said he had come to the conclusion that it was his duty to accept the call; that the work to which he was going presented many advantages, and that he felt sure that the congregation here would continue to make progress under another leadership. Taken Effect January 1.

The congregation with regret accepted the resignation to take effect January 1, and requested Dr. Knight to appoint a representative committee from the membership on pulpit sup-ply. It is understood that a commic tee of about fifteen members will be named to look about for a suitable man for the pastorate, and to make recommendations to the congregation Besides having had a successful pastorate at Calvary Bapt'st Church. Dr. Knight has identified himself with many progressive movements, having been a trustee of Richmond College ders. May Move Westward.

It could not be stated definitely by members of Calvary Baptist Church vesterday whether the vacancy in the pastorate would have a tendency to revive plans presented about a year ago for consolidating with Grace Street Baptist Church in a joint west-ward movement. At that time the two congregations considered a general plan for joint acquisition property in Lee District, with the view of the future erection of a building sufficient for the needs of both congregations, but nothing came of the negotiations. Calvary Church owns the lot at Pine and Grace Streets, running out to Grace Street in front of its present building, and it has been suggested that it might erect a new church building there, though the fact that there are other large Bapt'st churches in the vicinity seemed an argument for a westward

The Preston boom is of recent birth, but has already assumed imposing proportions. Chief among his supporter is the Washington County Journal, which devotes, in its latest issue, a column editorial to a recital of Mr. Preston's services to the party, and or his high standing in the community. Reference is made to his twenty-five years of commercial and banking experience in Abingdon during which period he has found time to serve his city and county with distinction in a number of public offices. Referring to his political activities, his home paper points to the fact that Mr. Preston was in large part responsible for the large Wilson and Ayers najority in Washington County, the only county in the Ninth District to figlain the Stuart majority of two years ago.
